Cielo Phillips

Hello, my name is Cielo and I am an advocate for all body types. I am covered from head (literally back of my head) to my fingers and down in tattoos. I started when I was 16. I got into modeling during my heaviest and deepest part of my eating disorder. I started these shoots to boost my confidence and also help other women who have different body types. I have since lost weight, and am getting more tattoos as we speak. I did get my hand and calf done in San Juan, Puerto Rico by a man named Marzaan, but all my beautiful work since I was 17 was done by Lila Rees at Rock City Tattoo in Barre, Vermont. I love animals, and all people. Modeling to me is a coping skill when I am feeling negatively toward my body and I want other women to know they can slay too. I am a mother to humans, dogs, snakes, goats, and chickens. I have been doing boudoir shoots since I was about 17. I absolutely love modeling my bigger frame, and also having dreadlocks isn't common, so I love modeling as a non-typical looking woman.
