Nikki Nichole

My name is Nikki Nichole and I'm a 21 year old internationally published model living in a very small town in Arizona. I want to tell you about a big part of my life that made me who I am. When I was younger, I was bullied a lot for being over weight and extremely tomboy. Eventually I started to train in a gym and did competitive boxing which helped me relieve a lot of stress. I learned how to love myself so that I wouldn't care what other people said.

The whole reason I started modeling was to prove to people that I could do it... Now my goal has changed... I want to show the world that ANYONE can do it if they have enough determination. little!her!!

lyssa is a small town girl, born in Las Vegas NV, but was raised in Pahrump NV. She moved away from Nevada to California for a little over a year where she completed Massage therapy school. After returning to Nevada she now spends a lot of her time working and going to college to get her Bachelor's degree. Alyssa believes that her meaning of life should be based on two things; loving and learning. Always love yourself, love what you do, and never stop learning. The world is full of knowledge and it's up to you to gain what it has to offer. Alyssa loves video games, and anything involving fantasy, especially Lord of the Rings. Alyssa also enjoys donating her time to charities and events, she enjoys meeting new people from all over the world as well as nature and traveling. Her dream is to live on a boat and see all the different islands and getting to know other cultures. Alyssa spends the rest of her time doing what she loves most; modeling. Alyssa has been modeling for two years, her passion is alternative modeling; because beauty comes in all different forms, expressing who you are as a person is much more beautiful then what society says is beautiful. She wants nothing more than to be known not only as a model but as a role model, she wants to make a difference for the better whether that be in one person's life or many. If you really want something it's up to you to make it happen; nothing is impossible it's just a matter of never giving up.

I'm a young Canadian girl with huge dreams. Modeling is my passion and I have met so many amazing people since I started my career. I hope to meet many more.

Candice Elizabeth

Candice Elizabeth started doing modelling for fun when she was studying to be a teacher so that she could get some themed shots to apply for acting parts in student films. She loved being in front of the camera but at the same time she was really worried about doing anything to risque (even bikini/lingerie she steered clear of) because she didn't want any future students stumbling across photos on the internet years later. That actually happened when she was teaching, but that's a whole different story!

When her teaching job ended, she realised that that was the only thing stopping her from really giving modelling a go, so she went for it! Being a teacher meant that she developed patience, as well as some smarts. Both of these things help in modelling for sure.

Since deciding to pursue modelling in 2013, Candice has been published multiple times in different men's magazines, competed in numerous online modelling competitions, as well as being sought for online features and music videos. Her online portfolio/presence has increased in leaps and bounds in the short time since she has begun pursuing modelling and she hopes that her portfolio continues to improve in 2015. A recent noteworthy achievement was being crowned Playboy's Miss Social August 2014, which saw her jet-set to the United States for a photoshoot with a Playboy photographer and take a tour of the mansion in December 2014. She is over the moon to be a part of the Playboy family and proud to be the first (and only!) Australian and redhead winner.

When it comes to styles, Candice loves glamour-style photography above all else and is also really fond of the pin-up style. She loves these styles of shoots as she believes that they best flatter her body type and look. Her natural body is slim yet curvy, and this combined with her fair skin and natural red hair gives her a unique yet classic look that is extremely versatile and striking.

The most important thing she's learnt is not to take criticism and knock-backs personally. When you start posting things in a public forum, negativity is always going to find its way to you. Even models like Miranda Kerr have to deal with it. You just need to have a thick skin. Another key lesson she learnt is if something looks too good to be true, it usually is. Make sure you ask around before accepting offers from photographers that don't have a reputation for being professional.

I'm Mia Erickson 41 from SLC UT. Little bit about me I've been on my own since I was 18, determined to make it in the world as a independent single woman, mother and a survivor. I work hard for my kids to give them what they want and what I didn't have growing up. I'm a passionate lover and love deeply. Scorpios tend to be faithful, ambitious and very focused on there desires. Mix that all together with my Italian blood and I'm fun!! I love the outdoors camping, hiking, boating and outside concerts and dancing!

What I set out to do when I started modeling this last year besides take it as far as I can and make my name known was to prove you don't have to be young and have the perfect body, height and weight. Beauty and passion surrounds us in different ways and it is how you emit what you have within yourself that will show others your real beauty. I hope I can inspire women around the world that age has nothing to do with reaching dreams.

or those who continue to ask, "WHAT IS REAL LOVE? Being in love is a committed, deeply devoted relationship. It is not just saying the words I love you but also actually feeling the same that you felt in the beginning of your relationship.

Like your job you can't stop working at it or you'll be fired so when you're truly in love, you must work at it daily or you may lose it. You must strive to keep it alive at all times.

It is the month of February in which we celebrate love on Valentine's Day. Happy Valentine's Day to everyone. However, if you're in any type of in love relationship everyday is a day to celebrate and be grateful that you have that special bond with that special someone! I believe that finding that right person to be in love with is priceless.

As far as me, my journey involved divorce and it definitely disrupted many of my plans but like many divorced people you get through it. You have to. I look at my parents and grandparents all made 50 or better years together! They stuck together through the good, bad and anything in between and that is unique. I wanted that for myself yet have now realized I can't control certain things that happened but I can control how I react to them.

I believe true love does take work but it is worth it. There is no reason any man or woman should settle for less. I have learned some important tips to help me. No person should constantly stay in the negative no matter what you have going on because it does spill over into every aspect of your life. In a relationship you need to add something, be positive and add spark to the relationship. Stay on the Sunny Side !

Love is fragile so if you must discuss something wait until you're both ready to avoid saying things in the moment out of your anger. Give each other some space then talk it out and there are times it is ok to agree to disagree. I also feel it is important to make sure you get enough of take care of you time as well as making ample time to connect with your partner. You must talk to each other about what you each need to sacrifice to keep the love alive. True love needs that- mutual compromises! Share your goals, dreams, desires etc.

Kim Thierry

A woman with short, multi-colored hair (pink, purple, and grey) is posing in a dramatic, low-angle shot. She is wearing fishnet stockings and has numerous tattoos on her arms, shoulders, and legs. She is leaning forward, resting her head on her hand, with her eyes looking towards the camera. The background is dark with red and blue lighting, creating a moody atmosphere.

Jennifer Powell

Jennifew Powell, 38 years old. Born and raised in Canton, Ohio. I have many tattoos that all have a significant meaning about my life. They all tell a lot about me. From my struggles, hard times, fun times, sadness, weakness, wild side and inspirations. I also have numerous piercings. It is very important to me to keep striving for my goals and dreams. One of my dreams as a little girl was to model for a famous magazine and be a CoverGirl. Another dream was to be published in a calendar. I started my modeling career five years ago with the support of my husband and children. I wanted to show my children and prove to myself, that it's never too late to make your dreams come true. A big quote I live by is, "Your life is what you make it". No one else can make your life for you. Also, "your life's a journey, not a destination.". I am not afraid to step out of the box and try something new. One month my hair could be pink and platinum and the next month I will be rocking blue, black, purple hair. I am the girl who will try anything once. Heck, even go back for more. I am open to any kind of modeling from fashion to erotic or fun to wild and crazy. If you ever want or are looking for a certain picture, I am that model ready and willing to make it happen. Things that turn me on are men and women covered in tattoos.

Another big one is Harley Davidson motorcycles. I always tell everyone, "There's nothing like feeling the vibration between my legs and the wind in my hair!". I love and want to be different than other models out there. I believe it shows others that it's okay to be who you are. Being different makes us all unique. From our scars, blemishes, sizes, things we all are so hard on ourselves about, others don't see. The body is a beautiful thing. Our bodies are just our own canvases. People with tattoos are just more fun and colorful to look at. Beauty is more than just skin deep though. People should never judge a book by its cover. Some of us just write our life's stories on the outside. I live my life on the edge and to the fullest because we are never promised tomorrow.

rin Fay is a 24 year old model from New Jersey. She has been modeling for 5 years and it has become quite a passion of hers.

Her goals are to shoot for playboy and has been featured on playboy Mexico's website and competes in Playboy miss social. She is also a promotional model for Bud Light. Her social media fan base reaches over 80 thousand people and has become very popular on social media. Her dreams are to be published all over the world. As a child Erin was not known to be one of the pretty or popular girls and was not chased around by the boys. She was picked on and was very shy. In her 5th grade year book when asked what she wanted to be when she grew up she put down modeling.

With no actual intentions of becoming a successful model she got older and went for her dream. Even if she does not reach all her goals as a modeling she has made it farther in the industry then she ever thought possible. She will continue to keep thriving as a model in the small town of Manahawkin New Jersey in hopes to become bigger then she ever imagined. She hopes to soon move to Las Angeles for more opportunities in the near future. Keep an eye out for this young aspiring model.

I do love tattoos on guys and I have some myself and if your the lucky one you might just get to see! 50 Shades of Gray is my favorite read. Movies of liking would consist of Fried Green Tomatoes, and Pulp

People ask me all the time how many hours have you put into your tattoos, how many years did it take and my personal favourite did they hurt? Well... I only really started getting ink about a year ago, as addictive as they are I pretty much got all my tattoos within a 6 month duration.

Approximately 65-70 hours under the gun, I can honestly say YES they hurt, but I love it ! From being a psychology student, to a business entrepreneur, personal training and modelling, I feel like I have a lot of different opportunities to explore. As of recently, I am enrolled in the wine sommelier program in niagara. Being a country girl at heart I feel I'm pretty down to earth and have established the fact that "I'm one of the guys". Sports fanatic and gym enthusiast this is why fitness plays a very big role in my life . I'm blessed to work with such amazing photographers from all around Ontario and am super excited to see what my future holds !!! Stay tuned for more creative pieces and I hope to keep my fans entertained !
