Connie Stevenson

Connie is an Alberta born and careered woman, standing 6ft without heels. She is always on the go whether it be modelling part time or twisting snap on wrenches at her fulltime job as a journeyman heavy duty mechanic.

She is currently working on her first build, a rat rod with a co-mechanic. Talking about things that make her wild are old muscle cars, and trucks with lots of horsepower.

That mechanic happens to be a friend turned more when things got heated up in the garage, on the rat rod - talking about a Dom and Letty scene from Fast and Furious, you know the one where Dom grabs Lettys ass and pulls her up close and onto his Charger.....

This girl loves anything with pistons. From mountain sledding, to quading, race cars, trucks and all the burnouts and events one can handle at a race track.

Connie aspires to keep doing what she's doing and more.

Her goals are constantly being met and sharing her art with fans is just another satisfying feeling of motivation.
