KeiKei

Hey There! I'm KeiKei I am a 22 year old Aquarius, native of Puerto Rico. I'm the oldest out of four siblings. my brother and I grew up without a father. I basically took care of my brother and sister and only just this year I learned I have two other younger sisters! I hope we are able to meet and get to know each other some day soon. I have to thank my mother and my amazing friends I have in my life for all of their love and support; they are truly a blessing.

I'm typically a tomboy on most days but others I am all girl. I like to get out into nature and explore, but not too fond of spiders and some insects. I write, sew, paint, draw and cook. I love to cook but most definitely love eating. Crab legs are my favorite sea food as well as shrimp. A great wine is a good way to top off a meal in my opinion. I do enjoy a good cup of coffee in the morning but at night I like to wind down with hot tea. I am not a professional musician but I do play six different instruments pretty well. I like the guitar and piano, I absolutely enjoy Beethoven but right now I really enjoy listening to Lindsey Sterling. I recently started to learn how to play Violin but that's going to take some time.

I do enjoy playing video games and Cosplay when I have time to attend conventions. My two favorite holidays are Thanksgiving and Halloween. I love gathering around my family and friends and enjoying a home cooked meal from my mother or from anyone for that matter. Halloween, I have a sweet tooth and I can't help that I like to dress up. Fall is my favorite season for nature turns to it's best by those beautiful and inspiring colors it brings to life. I've only recently started back into modeling and people say I look a lot like Selena Gomez but I don't see it. I attended a beauty pageant a couple years ago and won a couple awards and ribbons. I guess I have always had a passion for performance and the arts and I see that modeling is a way for me to bring it all together. I truly am eager to learn, grow and become the absolute best I can be as both a model and a person. It's rather tough right now working two jobs and finishing college but I believe in myself and accomplishing all my goals. I always have time in my busy schedule to visit my mother, friends and model at every opportunity that I get.

Hi, I'm Stacey, a 22 year old model originally from Watford (London) but currently living in Bournemouth. I've been modelling just over a year now and I love it! I started by being part of Bournemouth Calendar Girls and it blew me away, loved it, bearing in mind i wasn't even meant to do it due to being so shy. But my friend persuaded me to go and I've not regretted it ever since.

Since that day my modelling has picked up massively and I feel I've gone from strength to strength! I always dreamed of being a model since i was a little girl and i never thought it would ever come true. But now I sit here with masses of experience, money in my pocket and a personal agent.

I have lots of other talents, some which I studied at college and some I have taught myself like art, sewing, tattooing, photography, makeup & hair, cooking and more! but modelling is definitely my favourite and the one for me and I actually enjoy waking up for work knowing it's a photo shoot!

Creating beautiful pictures is definitely a passion of mine and I feel this shows in my shoots and i have a massive following of people as well as supportive people and that keeps me going massively. So my aim now is to keep pushing myself and I won't stop until I'm the best I can be which definitely includes being on front covers of the best magazines.

I won't rest until I'm a successful! I'm so determined to make it big in this world so ill give it everything I've got to reach my dream! nothings impossible. See you there!

East Coast Celebrity's newest model is Jenna Roberts. She is a 35 year old model from Brooklyn, New York. She has modeled for years starting with a hair commercial and had taken time off to complete her BS in Nutrition, and then become a licensed esthetician.

She loves being both in front of and behind the camera. Jenna loves to also take pictures and has built a huge portfolio of bikini photos, lingerie photos, outdoor photos, baby photos, maternity/pregnancy photos and family photos. She is into a lot of different types of modeling shoots like bikini, lingerie, motorcycles, cars, beach, fashion etc. Jenna has been published a few times on several internet websites and is now starting another aspect of modeling... She is going to start playing in the cosplay arena. Some of her characters will be Princess Leia, Poison Ivy, Tigress and Harley Quinn to name a few.

Jenna's favorite thing to do is travel. She is a well cultured worldly traveler both domestic and international with a flavor for tasting all exotic foods along the way. She loves the beach, ocean, wildlife, snorkeling, volleyball, animal rescuing, reading, horseback riding, charity events, yoga, candles, incense, getting deep-tissue and hot stone massages, going to the gym and working out. She loves to eat healthy and take care of both her mind and body. Jenna is very spiritual and loves to meditate as one of her favorite sayings is, "If you don't have 10 minutes to meditate then mediate for one hour."

Jenna is currently completing her studies graduating with a second degree Associates in Health and Well Being. She will also obtain her second licensure as a Licensed Massage Therapist as well as working at her photography and modeling businesses. She is very thankful to the management team of East Coast Celebrity especially her manager Jeff Caso who she says, "He has not only worked to promote and help me further my career but has worked with me more as a mentor who is guiding me along this tedious process. I am both blessed and lucky to have found someone who is as passionate about the business as I am." Jenna is recently engaged and set to be married September 2017 and she currently is raising 5 furbabies kitties named Butterz, Fuzzy, Jenni, Niko and Twiggy Smalls.

Lindsay is 37 and from South Yorkshire. Prior to her becoming a model nearly 2 years ago, Lindsay had a very different life.

Lindsay was a sales manager on holiday parks selling static caravans, log cabins and chalets. Lindsay travelled and lived all over the UK whilst doing this and loved the job so much.

Lindsay made the decision to retrain after doing her previous job a long time and became a stock broker and financial adviser. Lindsay had to give up work sadly in 2010 due to continued ill health and has not been able to pick her career back up in this sector.

Lindsay suffers a few health conditions, fibromyalgia and ME/CFS being two of them. The fibromyalgia awareness colour is purple, hence the purple hair! The Modelling and becoming a makeup artist has changed her life completely and has given her such enjoyment and a totally new outlook on life.

Lindsay loved to ride her horses and dedicated much of her time to her beloved animals, those also include her first cat Freckle and her current cat Treacle! Growing up she was also a musician, playing the flute and singing, going on to obtaining a York Degree in music and music technology at the Scarborough Campus.

Lindsay loves Modelling and is so surprised at her popularity and how fast it has snowballed from a quick shoot for a friend and putting an image on twitter, to where she is now!

Lindsay is very versatile in the genres of modelling, including bridal, fashion and the one people know her best for, her lingerie modelling. There is also the hair and makeup that Lindsay does for models, brides and obviously herself for the majority of her shoots. Lindsay loves doing the crazy creative makeup as it brings out her artistic side, especially as she tells us, she cant draw, not even a stick man!

Lindsay has been single for about 6 years, but there is a glimmer of hope on the horizon of a special man that may put her single, mad cat lady days to an end!

Lindsay hopes to be modelling for a long time yet to come as it is a massive part of her life now!

Andrina Kali

She is from a small town in Oklahoma. Her past experiences include publications in F'D Oklahoma Magazine, NEXT Models, Raw Talent Usa Magazine, FA Magazine, Suicide Girls and Emerald Nights. She is a model for Mistresses of Mayhem, Vision of Punk, Emerald Girls, Sins Girls, Sinister Sisters, Raw Talent Clothing Company and Suicide Girls. Her goals are to pursue her modeling career and get published in Maxim and Vanquish and to take her career as a model as far and high as she can. She is a small town country girl trying to make it big. Her dream is to become a cosmetic surgeon so she can help others feel confident and work on child burn victims and disfigured children as she wants them to feel as confident as she wishes she did as a child. She wants to make it to where she can be a role model for pre-adolescent and teenage girls to send the message that confidence is key. Her little secrets are she was an obese baby and won baby USA, she was a "nerd" growing up and is very happy with how intelligent she is as she has now graduated from the University of Oklahoma and plans to attend med school. She is the weirdest person she knows and is one of a kind for sure ;) She ran away to Mexico at the age of 15 and returned to her small hometown 3 months later. She is full of love and passion and a hopeless romantic who plans to live out her fairy tale with her very unique knight in shining armor!
