My name is Shaelyn Mariah McPhee, I am originally from the country up in a small town called Shelburne, Ontario. I moved to the city when I was 11 years old to Oshawa, Ontario where I currently still live. I grew up being huge into dramatic arts majoring in the art of dance then following with drama, singing, and playing different instruments. I currently am huge into the hospitality/serving and bartending industry which I am one day hoping to become a manager/owner at corporate well known facility. I am looking forward to traveling the world and then settling down and starting a family. A little bit about my background is that I came from a very hard childhood and went through a lot with family issues like many, struggling from mental illness still to this day. I know I am not alone therefore it makes me stronger and pushes me towards personal goals. I often dream of becoming rich and famous ever since I was very young, although I know this is not what I truly desire I would settle just for the average and having family and a career I love. Little secrets I do have are; I enjoy passionate and romantic over the more rough and crazy sorts of sex life. And I prefer the nerdy introverts over the, you can call the outgoing, attention seeking "extroverts" which I find a turn off. This brings me to my personal love life, which I can say has its ups and downs. I have been in a relationship with an amazingly hilarious, caring, shy, and very adorable man for roughly 5 years now and I wouldn't trade him for the world. Inside jokes, laughs, and fun time are never lacking with this man. To end this I would like to talk a bit about my modeling career. I started in 2014 when I was 18 years old and for two straight years went fully into it with my heart. I eventually decided to take some breaks which has lead me to not shoot hardly as much these days due to a busy work life. But whenever I do shoot I feel natural behind the camera and always end up with some amazing work. I will continue to fulfill my passion of the modeling art and shoot for as long as I can as I cherish my long lasting true fans. I would like to shout out the truly talented Robert Deak which was my photographer for these stunning images, hes always a pleasure working with. Makeup/hair was done by myself. Thanks for the support, much love,- Shaelyn Mariah xox

Living in sunny San Diego it's hard to stay away from the camera. I'm a true Sol Cal girl just give me the beach and sunshine and I'll be the happiest girl in the world! I also love working with children teaching had been very exhilarating. Even though I love teaching modeling has always been my #1 love.
